- Purses for the New York Sire Stakes Finals will be $225,000 for each division. There is no declaration fee, but the New York State starting fee of $19.90 will be due.
- There will be a detention barn at Yonkers Raceway for these events; horses must enter between 12noon and 4:00pm on Friday, Sept. 11. See full protocols for details.

Excelsior Series Finals

- All horses must be entered at Tioga Downs by Tuesday, Sept. 8, 2020, no later than 9:00 a.m. for the Excelsior A Finals, held on Friday, Sept. 11. Nine horses will be drawn with two also eligibles.
- Purses for the Excelsior A Finals will be $50,000 for each division. There is no declaration fee, but the New York State starting fee of $19.90 will be due.

Racing Reminders

- 1) To enter, horsemen are reminded that horses must still meet the requirements of:
 - (a) a charted satisfactory performance line within 30 days of declaration that meets the qualifying standards in the conditions, and
 - (b) cannot have two consecutive breaks in the last two charted performance lines.If a horse does not meet these criteria, it must qualify before being entered.
- 2) Horses must start in at least three legs of the Sire Stakes or Excelsior Series to be eligible for the finals. If not enough horses with three starts enter, the highest point earner which entered with two starts will be selected, etc., to fill the first tier.
- 3) Only two entries from a common owner will be permitted to race in the final events. There is no limit on horses from the same training stable with separate ownership. Any horse that changes ownership within 30 days before the date of entry for the finals must have these changes approved by the Fund to race in the final events.
- 4) If there is a tie in the point standings for the last entry in a final event, the judges will draw by lot from the horses tied.
- 5) A horse may only race in one final event—NYSS Final, Excelsior Final or County Fair Final.
