

Freshman trotting fillies head to Tioga for NYSS

by James Witherite for Tioga Downs

Nichols, NY---Twenty-one 2-year-old trotting fillies will contest three New York Sire Stakes events on Friday (September 11) evening's program at Tioga Downs, with Non Stick looking to keep her undefeated record intact.

Non Stick, one of a quartet of four-time winners on the program, has been installed as the 6-5 morning line favorite in the evening's fifth race, carrying a $36,566 purse. The daughter of Lucky Chucky and Meucci Madness was recently a pillar-to-post winner at Yonkers, having taken her career mark of 1:56.3 at Vernon the week prior. Lucas Wallin handles the driving duties for trainer Åke Svanstedt.

A pair of four-time winners square off in the second division, carded as race six on the 13-race card. Posterity (9-5 ML) reeled off three straight wins before she was collared at Yonkers in her most recent race, edging clear for a 1:56 win at Vernon on August 14. Trainer Charlie Norris will drive the daughter of Lucky Chucky and Vintage Chip. She will have to contend with Ron Burke trainee Goosebump Hanover (7-5 ML), who comes in off three straight New York Sire Stakes victories, most recently holding sway narrowly for a 1:57.2 win at Saratoga. Jim Morrill, Jr. is slated to drive the daughter of RC Royalty and Good Common Cents.

In the third and final division, programmed as the seventh event, Dizzy Broad (7-5 ML) seeks to extend her winning streak to three. Ron Burke and Jim Morrill, Jr. once again team up with the daughter of Broad Bahn and Portia.

The penultimate program of the season at Tioga Downs is due to begin at 6:15 p.m. Eastern time.
